ROYALTY IN GLENDALE

KING ALBERT AND QUEEN ELIZABETH OF BELGIUM TO PASS THROUGH CITY FRIDAY

Glendale is to have an opportunity to entertain the much-admired King of Belgium and the royal party next Friday morning at eleven o'clock. Roy Pilcher of the Los Angeles committee of entertainment visited our city Monday and announced to officials that the King would pass through here at that time, on his way from Hollywood to Pasadena. He will enter the city by way of Los Feliz boulevard coming north on Brand to Broadway, thence east to the junction of Broadway with Colorado street.

School trustees have been asked to suspend the school sessions to afford the children an opportunity to see the King and welcome him with songs of greeting and patriotism. Mr. Kirchoffer, leader of the Community Sing, will be asked to be present and lead the children in the songs for which books are being provided by Mr. Pilcher who is also furnishing Belgian flags with which to decorate the thoroughfares along which King Albert and Queen Elizabeth will pass. Mr. Muhleman, as president of the Board of City Trustees, will greet the King on behalf of the city and citizens who wish to show their respect for the monarch of brave little Belgium are expected to assemble on Brand and Broadway.

The children in schools in the southern part of Glendale will probably be assembled on Brand in the neighborhood of Los Feliz Road. Those from the upper part of the city will gather on Broadway between Brand and Glendale under direction of their teachers.

The full arrangements for the reception of the King have not been completed but will be announced later. All Belgians in this city, or persons acquainted with Belgians who reside in Glendale are requested to send their names and addresses to the City Hall that special invitations may be sent to them and special places be reserved for them in the celebration.

As it is considered very desirable that a large number of returned soldiers, sailors and marines in uniform should participate in the greeting which Glendale is to give the Belgian King and Queen, James McBryde, Commander of the local organization of American Defenders, has been asked to act as a special committeeman and all service men who can possibly take part Friday morning are asked to report to him regardless of whether they belong to the local organization with which he connected or not.

BUSINESS LOOKS UP

CHANGES ON SAN FERNANDO ROAD INDICATE THE RETURN OF PROSPERITY

The popularity of Glendale as a place of residence which has been the means of filling up all the vacant houses is having its effect on the southern part of the city which for so long a time suffered from business depression and San Fernando Road is looking up with a prospect of coming into its own. Well-posted, farsighted people have always contended that in spite of its temporary relapse this main State Highway is bound to be a good center of trade. The vacant building at the junction of Central avenue and San Fernando Road has been converted into a garage and is a considerable improvement. A mattress factory has established itself in one of the stores, a stone cutter has opened up a place of business, some markets and groceries not there before are now doing business, the apartments in the block owned by Major John A. Payne on San Fernando and Central with the exception of two which he has retained for his own use, have been leased to Mrs. G. M. White, who has furnished them and easily found tenants, the building owned by Charles Rifenberick, known as the Tropico Hotel, is filling up and Mr. Rifenberick plans to return to Glendale and take charge of it himself. The Findlay Candy Factory has also established itself on the road and is not only doing an excellent retail business in confectionery but is serving lunches that are a considerable accommodation to the traveling public. Mr. Anderson of the Anderson Garage is building an oil station at the corner of San Fernando and Los Feliz Road, and first anybody knows the thoroughfare will be one of the most thriving business streets in Glendale.

WEATHER FORECAST: Partly cloudy tonight and Wednesday.

TENT GOES EAST

EVANGELIST VOM BRUCH AND PARTY TO BE IN SANTA MONICA THIS WEEK

The tent on Wilson avenue, which glowed with electric lights like a huge balloon every night last week and in which the emotional cadences of evangelistic hymns swelled into a flood of melody, is down, and by now has probably reached its new destination, Covina. Before five o'clock on Monday morning a crew of twenty men were on hand to take it down, and the task was completed a few minutes after seven o'clock. Not to be outdone in service some of the women were there too, Mrs. James Newton, Mrs. Jim Cooper and Mrs. Mottern, assisted by some of the young ladies, serving breakfast to the workers at the Baptist Church close by. The equipment and a new tent went forward last night, as stated, to Covina, where an evangelistic campaign is on this week. Messrs. Vom Bruch and party go to Hollywood where they will open a series of meetings tonight. They made many friends while here and quite a party will motor to Santa Monica to attend the meeting there.

The work of the week climaxed on Sunday when about four hundred worshipers gathered for the afternoon service at which Mrs. Meagher was soloist, and in the evening more than packed the tents. The sides were let down all around for expansion so the crowd on the outside could hear. Children were seated upon the platform or held in the laps of their parents.

At this service Miss Mary Louise Hand whistled "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and responded to an encore with "Somewhere a Voice Is Calling."

The evangelist's topic was "The Unanswered Question, or Salvation Past, Present and to Come." He emphasized the point that we cannot expect God to reverse a law for our benefit simply because we get on the wrong side of it, and illustrated his declaration in several striking ways.

In response to the "invitation" at the close of the address, twenty-seven came to the altar.

Y. M. C. A. PROGRAM

BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL MEN BOOSTING FOR SUCCESS OF Y. M. C. A. IN GLENDALE

Twenty-five business men gathered at the White Inn last evening for dinner to check up on the progress of the Y. M. C. A. financial campaign which closes tonight. All team captains were called on for reports, the total reported to date being $1702. All of these subscriptions except six or seven are signed up for two years each. The team headed by Rev. W. E. Edmonds and H. L. Finley had the best report, totaling $160 since the first reports published.

Three different people have subscribed $100 each, ten have subscribed $50 each, eighteen at $25 and the rest in amounts from $5 to $25. This means that the thirty odd solicitors will need to get $1100 signed up today. Inasmuch as Monday is always a busy time, many of the men were not able to do much work yesterday and they are confident that the campaign will be successful and the amount asked for subscribed by 10 o'clock tonight.

There are many people who ought and are willing to help this work who cannot be seen for lack of time and sufficient workers. Such persons are urged to see or telephone some member of the Executive Committee in order that their subscriptions may be reported this evening. The campaign headquarters are in the furniture store of Ezra Parker and someone will be on duty and can be telephoned there during business hours or get in touch with David Black, C. W. Ingledue, Hartley Shaw, Roy L. Kent, A. G. Lindley, Harry L. Howe or others who are assisting in the canvass.

County Secretary Anderson states that just as soon as one or two other communities of this district have had their campaigns, the District Office will be opened here and a secretary go to work. It is expected that the permanent committee who will have supervision of the work in Glendale will be announced within ten days.

ENTERTAINS OKLAHOMA FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Franklin have been entertaining Oklahoma friends who have been sojourning for a few weeks in Southern California, viz., Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robertson, of Lawton, Okla. Mr. Robertson is cashier of the First National Bank there and is also president of the Oklahoma Bankers' Association.

PRESIDENT HAS RESTLESS NIGHT

SLEEP BROKEN BY DISTRESS FROM SWOLLEN GLAND—SERIOUS NATURE OF HIS ILLNESS DENIED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 14.—President Wilson's physicians issued this statement today:

"The president did not have a restful night. His restlessness was caused by the swelling of the prostate gland, a condition from which he has suffered in the past and which has been intensified more or less by his lying in bed. His general condition, however, is good. As noted yesterday, his temperature, pulse, respiration, heart action and blood pressure are normal."

A specialist may be called soon for consultation regarding the swollen gland. Officials in close touch with those few who see the president declare their belief that he will be back at work within a month or six weeks, although one Senator, who is in a position to have good information declares it will be seven months before recovery will be complete. Most of the authoritative sources in administration circles declare that the reports that the President should resign are propaganda designed to undermine faith in the President and the League of Nations. The same answer is applied to reports that he will never recover.

GERMANY SIDESTEPS

FIRST SAYS SHE WILL CO-OPERATE IN BLOCKADE AGAINST BOLSHEVIST RUSSIA AND THEN DECLINES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

BERLIN, Oct. 14.—In a note received here addressed to Germany, Austria, and the various neutral countries, the Allies have proposed an international blockade of Bolshevist Russia. The communication asks Russia what measuress she is prepared to take to assist the blockade.

Immediately following the receipt of the note it was officially stated that Germany would co-operate but could not accomplish much. Later however, a feeling developed that Germany should refuse on the grounds that she would not submit another nation to a blockade similar to the one she suffered during the war.

THE ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM

PRESIDENT MAY ASK CONGRESS NOT TO ADJOURN UNTIL IT HAS CONSIDERED LEGISLATION HE RECOMMENDED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 14.—The president may ask Congress not to adjourn until it has considered the legislation which he has recommended in his various messages, it was learned at the White House, today.

FINANCIAL CREDIT TO BELGIUM

REPORTED THAT KING ALBERT WILL LAUNCH CAMPAIGN FOR SUCH ACTION ON PART OF U. S.

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

SAN FRANCISCO, October 14.—King Albert of Belgium and the royal party arrived here this morning. It is understood that he will launch a campaign for the extension of American credit to Belgium while in San Francisco.

TO EXTEND PASSPORT REGULATIONS

ACTION TO BE TAKEN TO PREVENT INRUSH OF ALIEN AGITATORS NOW CONCENTRATED ON BORDERS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 14.—The Senate Foreign Relations committee today recommended extending the war-time passport regulations for one year as a means of keeping alien agitators out of the country. The committee acted at the request of Secretary Lansing who presented information to the effect that large groups of agitators are now concentrated at many points just outside the country waiting to rush in when the restrictions are lifted.

CODE TO GOVERN STRIKE MEDIATION

"THE PUBLIC" GROUP OF INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE SEEKS TO REGULATE FUTURE LABOR DISPUTES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 14.—The Central Committee of the Industrial conference reported to the full conference today without recommendation, a resolution for mediation in the steel strike.

Leading members of the group representing the public have started the preparation of an extensive code designed to govern mediation in all future labor disputes. In preparing the code, the committee is following the plan which Secretary of Labor Wilson submitted and the statements which employers of labor groups have recommended.

ELKS AT HOME

HAVE QUIET LODGE MEETING TO REVIEW CONVENTION AND MAKE PLANS FOR FUTURE

The regular meeting of the Glendale Elks' Lodge Monday evening was a good home conference. A fine resume of the State Convention at San Diego was made by Exalted Ruler Cameron Thom and Captain William C. Wattles reported on behalf of the White Star Patrol. He appealed to the lodge for its financial support to enable the drill team to do efficient work and prepare itself to represent to the very best of its ability the Glendale organization and his suggestion met with a sympathetic response. Then and there donations were made to start a drill team fund, and send the team to the State Convention at Sacramento next year.

There were no initiations, but the lodge balloted on several applications for membership, and initiations will take place one week hence on the anniversary of the founding of the Glendale organization. The anniversary will be fittingly recognized but there will be no public celebration.

The lodge also voted to accept the invitation of the San Bernardino Lodge to put on initiatory work there October 27th.

THE 1920 CENSUS

P. F. DODSON, SUPERVISOR OF CENSUS, BEGINS PRELIMINARY WORK OF CENSUS TAKING

The preliminary work in connection with the fourteenth census of the United States has begun. The Supervisor's office is established in the Merchants' Trust Building on Broadway near Second street in Los Angeles. At present Los Angeles county is being divided into enumeration districts. There will be from five hundred to seven hundred enumeration districts in the county. It is the purpose of the department to employ one enumerator for each district who will be busily engaged during the first part of January, 1920, gathering facts for the Government. The pay will not exceed 4c per name for each individual or 30c for each farm listed, except in some districts which are sparsely settled and in such enumeration districts, enumerators may be paid not more than $6 per day.

Returned soldiers, who have seen foreign service, will be given the preference. The census requires as enumerators, active, energetic persons of good address who must be between 18 to 70 years of age; citizens of the United States; thoroughly trustworthy, honest and of good habits. They must have at least ordinary education and be able to write plainly and with reasonable rapidity. They should be thoroughly familiar with the district in which they work. The examinations for position of enumerator will be held November 1, 1919, at different places in the county to be designated later. Applications must be in the hands of the Supervisor on or before October 23, 1919.

ATHLETIC EVENTS

TWO INTERESTING GAMES PLAYED MONDAY IN LEAGUE OF CITY SCHOOL TEAMS

Mr. Blanford, director of athletics in city schools, reports two events in soccer football pulled off Monday afternoon, viz., the Intermediate Tigers met the Columbus avenue team in a drawn battle in which skill and strength were so well matched that the score was nothing to nothing. Ball players will know what that means. That was in Division One.

In Division 2 the team of Pacific Avenue School played against Colorado's team, the game ending in a score of 5 to nothing. At the present time, therefore, the Pacific Avenue team is at the head of the local school league. The grade changes at Pacific avenue have strengthened the athletic department there and they are looking forward to interesting contests. The game was refereed by Mr. Blanford, Mr. Price rendering the same service at Columbus avenue. Following is the line-up of the Pacific Avenue team:

Goal Keeper, Frederick Whitaker.
Left Full-Back, Frederick Foss.
Right Fullback, Willie Reynolds.
Left Half-back, Myles Van Fleet.
Left Center, George Butterly.
Right Center, Francis Morgan.
Left Forward, Harold Begg.
Left Forward, John Copeland.
Right Forward, Clarence Albaeck.
Right Forward, William McClammy.
Center Forward, Louis Bauer

HAGINS TO JAPAN

FORMER GLENDALE FAMILY SAILS NOV. 2D TO CONTINUE WORK IN TOKIO

A telegram was received by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Fred E. Hagin, who formerly lived on Orange street, that they will return to Tokio next month.

Mr. Hagin will be in Glendale today and tonight will meet friends at the Christian Church where he will tell of the plans for their work in Japan.

Miss Edith will accompany her parents and assist in their missionary work in the heart of Tokio where they expect to erect a great Community House.

Dan and Fannie, both of whom attend the Glendale High School, will complete their college work at Northwestern University.

SUDDEN DEATH

S. B. MITCHELL, FATHER OF J. R. MITCHELL, PASSES AWAY DURING NIGHT

The family of J. R. Mitchell of 705 Verdugo Road were saddened Monday morning when it was learned that Mr. Mitchell's father, S. B. Mitchell, of Magnolia, Ill., who had been here for nearly a year, had passed away during the night. Mr. Mitchell went to bed Sunday evening about 8 o'clock in his usual health and good spirits. When the family went to call him Monday morning he did not respond and investigation revealed that he had passed away.

Mr. Mitchell was past 82 years of age. He had lived since 1857 in Magnolia. His wife who was born, married and died in the same house in Magnolia passed away seventeen years ago. Mr. Mitchell came to Glendale last December to spend the winter and concluded to remain over another winter.

Besides his son, J. R. Mitchell, of Glendale, he is survived by Herbert A. Mitchell of Des Moines, Iowa; Mrs. Julia Ruble of Toluca, Ill.; Mrs. Frank Howe of Woodbine, Iowa, and H. G. Mitchell.

Mr. Mitchell served as postmaster and assistant in Magnolia for about twenty-five years. He was a member of the same Masonic Lodge for fifty-six years and enjoyed affiliating with his brother Masons in Glendale.

The remains will be sent to Magnolia for burial leaving this afternoon.

RETURNS FROM NORTH

G. W. WARNER INSPECTS OIL PROPERTIES IN MENDICINO CO.; ENJOYS DEER HUNT

George W. Warner of 320 North Orange street has just returned from a most interesting and enjoyable auto trip which ended in a visit to Trinity county and a deer hunt there in which he got one deer and saw twenty-two others. Five of them were seen in a little apple orchard at daybreak where they had called to enjoy the fallen fruit. His itinerary was through Santa Barbara, Paso Robles, San Jose, across to Oakland and Port Richmond, by ferry to San Quentin and from there to Santa Rosa and Cloverdale and then over the mountains to Ponta Arena, his main objective on the coast 140 miles north of San Francisco. He went to look over oil properties for Los Angeles parties for whom he secured leases which they will go north to inspect in the near future. He found a good highway most of the way barring about 18 miles between here and San Francisco. The country in Sonoma and Mendicino counties is very beautiful, he says, with fine water and the finest kind of fruit. The mountain roads are narrow with short turns, but he was surprised to see how good they were. His journey led him through Ukiah and Fort Bragg. He says that Trinity county is quite a quicksilver producing section. He is interested because during the war he was engaged in quicksilver mining in San Luis Obispo county. Of course, since the armistice the demand has fallen off materially. It now brings about $100 for a 75-pound flask whereas at one time while the war was in progress it reached a value of $240. All through the conflict it ranged from $150 to $175 per flask. Mr. Warner will probably make another trip in the near future.

Judge Cable, father of Dr. Colin Cable of this city, has returned to his home in Kansas City. He has been the guest of his son and daughter-in-law since the first of August and his visit has been a great pleasure to all of them.

THE IRISH QUESTION

The visit of the President to the Pacific Coast is now a thing of the past. Whilst it can scarcely be doubted that he made some converts to his plan of internationalism, and possibly turned a few against it, the great majority of the people remained unchanged in their views. The President was received everywhere with the respect due to his high office, and his audiences, if not always over-enthusiastic, were at least hearty enough in their greetings to satisfy the Chief Executive.

The President's answer to inquiries about his position in the Irish question were generally regarded, by Irish-American leaders, as inadequate. The President pointed to Article XI, of the League of Nations as a source of remedy; but on the other hand, in the daily papers of September 17 appeared this declaration by Ian MacPherson, British Chief Secretary for Ireland:

When Great Britain signed the armistice terms she agreed to President Wilson's principles, including the right of self-determination for small nations, but she did not agree to the application of that principle within the British Empire.

This saying, if it means anything at all, renders nugatory all possible applications of Article XI to Ireland, and, it may be added, to India, Egypt, and Persia. Furthermore, it is in direct contradiction of the oft-asserted claim of British statesmen, that the British Empire is itself a league of independent states. Had this been always an effective doctrine of British statecraft, then Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, and Newfoundland would not now enjoy self-government. As a matter of fact, it is only one of those utterances by which British officialdom proclaims that it has one form of justice for Ireland, India, and Egypt, and another for the rest of the world.

Mr. MacPherson's statement was nicely timed to cancel the effects of the President's statement, and doubtless the latter does not thank the jingoistic Scotchman for his prompt interference.—The Tidings.

SUNSET

Last eve the sun went down
Like a globe of glorious fire;
Into a sea of gold
I watched the orb expire.
It seemed the fitting end
For the brightness it had shed,
And the cloudlets he had kissed
Long lingered over head.

All vegetation drooped
As if with pleasure faint;
The lilly closed its cup
To guard against storm and taint.
The cool refreshing dew
Fell softly to the earth
All lovely things to cheer
And call more beauties forth.

And as I sat and thought
Of nature's wondrous plan,
I felt with some regret
How small a thing is man.
However bright he be,
His efforts are confined;
Yet maybe if he will
Leave some rich fruits behind.

The sun that kissed the flowers
And made the earth look gay,
Was culling through the hours,
Rich treasures on his way.
And when the day was dead
His stored up riches fell
And to the moon arose
Incense from hill and dell.

And when our span of life
Is ended, will it be
Through such a glorious death
We greet eternity?
What have we said or done
In all the long years passed?
And may not such as me
Forgotten die at last.

EFFORT TO AVERT COAL STRIKE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

WASHINGTON, October 14.—Senator Freylinghausen, chairman of the Senate committee which is investigating the coal situation in a speech before the Senate today warned the coal miners who are threatening to strike in November that their contract with the government is binding and must be fulfilled.

Several plans to avert the strike have been laid before the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee and it is intimated that the president may be asked to act despite his illness. The cabinet discussed the situation this morning and decided that Secretary of Labor Wilson should direct the government's policy.

Senator Poindexter of Washington, addressing the Senate, declared the government is in danger of overthrow by revolutionists unless immediate steps for defense are taken.

The Riverside Enterprise tells of a woman who tried to commit suicide there and was "rushed" to the hospital. In 715, 461 cases of injured people within the last forty years, the newspapers spoke of 715, 460 of them as being "rushed" to the hospital. The other one was merely "taken" to the hospital, and how this reportorial oversight occurred has never been explained by the newspapers.

Personals

Mrs. Harvey D. Kirk of 725 East Windsor Road has just returned from the east where she has been visiting her parents for ten weeks.

Mrs. Maurice Healey of 1202 East Colorado has just returned from Laguna, where she and her mother, Mrs. Wing, of Los Angeles, spent the summer.

Mrs. Roscoe Jones of 327 West Cerritos avenue and her two children are leaving Wednesday for a three weeks' vacation with friends who have a ranch near Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Goodwin of 212 West Garfield avenue have returned from Manhattan, where they spent the summer. Mrs. Goodwin was much benefited by her stay at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hitchcock and daughter, Bettie, of Gardena avenue, were guests of Mrs. Walter N. Stamps at an informal little dinner given at her home, 204 West Lomita avenue on Saturday evening.

Miss Sarah Walker, who has been in Glendale with her aunt, Mrs. D. E. Mallet, is visiting at her home in Woodbury, Connecticut, and expects to return to Glendale later. She reports fine weather there for her visit.

A. G. Hayes and family of 736 South Louise street are somewhat disturbed by the building of a three-room addition to their house which is now going on, but they are reconciled because they will enjoy it so much when it is done.

Frank Nell of Stanley avenue, who has been an invalid for more than a year, has been moved to a Los Angeles hospital and Mrs. Nell has leased their home that she may be free to go to Los Angeles to be near her husband.

Mrs. Margaret A. Fife, mother of J. M. Fife, who has been a guest in his home at 314 North Orange street for about a year, has returned to her home in Pittsburg. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. M. F. Rhodes, who came about six weeks ago from her home in Houston, Pa., to take her mother home. Both ladies made quite a circle of friends while here and will be considerably missed.

Little Katherine Cross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Cross of 329 Mira Loma avenue, is critically ill of typhoid fever at the Angelus Hospital in Los Angeles. Her fever has been running very high for more than three weeks and her father has been summoned. He is expected to arrive Thursday. He was called to Detroit, Michigan, a few weeks ago by the illness of his mother and he is leaving her in a very serious condition to come to the bedside of his daughter.

Col. Tom Thornton and Mrs. Thornton are now cosily settled in their new home at 301 North Brand boulevard. It will be remembered by readers of the Evening News that several weeks ago a very complete description of this beautiful dwelling house was given in the columns of the News. Colonel and Mrs. Thornton are not strangers to Glendale, they having resided here previously for many years. For the past few years they had resided in La Crescenta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. P. Hayman of 713 North Howard street have moved to Santa Monica. They left last Thursday. The house in which they have been living has been purchased by Mrs. Mary La Bau and family, who came here from Pasadena, but who came to that city from New York three years ago. She is very much delighted with the air of Glendale, its appearance and the friendliness of its people.

Mrs. Edgar H. Fry drove to San Pedro Monday evening to convey Miss Margaret McKee, the whistler and her accompanist to an entertainment given by the Industrial Y. M. C. A. there, of which Mr. Fry has charge. Miss McKee was one of the artists on the very nice program given. A series of choice miscellaneous programs to be given once a week has been arranged for the pleasure of the shipyard workers. Mr. Fry is spending Tuesday in Glendale to help with the Y. M. C. A. drive here.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Aston and little daughters are guests of their mother, Mrs. Ida M. Terry, 631 North Central. Mr. Aston, who has been employed at the Mare Island Navy Yards during the past year, has been granted a month's vacation at this time. Mr. Aston reports there is more work in the Navy Yards at the present time than has been known before, on account of the fleet stationed in Pacific waters. They were expecting to have the great battleship, California, ready to be launched the middle of this month, but because of the great rush of work, they have postponed the launching until December. Mr. and Mrs. Aston and family are leaving tomorrow for a week's stay at Hermosa, accompanied by Mrs. Terry.

HONORING MRS. G. J. LUND

Mrs. Walter N. Stamps of 204 West Lomita and Mrs. M. L. Russell, of 322 Riverdale Drive were the hostesses at a very pleasant dinner which was given at the residence of the latter on Sunday in honor of their mother, Mrs. G. J. Lund, of Los Angeles, whose birthday anniversary it was. Immediate members of the families gathered around a table prettily adorned with pink cosmos. The birthday cake also had its touch of pink in the way of candles. Covers were laid for Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Lund and Miss Elizabeth Maynard of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Stamps and daughters, Doris and Barbara, Mrs. M. L. Russell and daughters, Virginia and Eleanor.

PLEASURES IN RETROSPECT

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Hearnshaw motored with Mr. and Mrs. John Roman to San Diego to attend the Elks' Convention the latter part of the week, returning Sunday night. Mrs. Hearnshaw reports that they had a very nice time and met nearly all the members of the big Glendale delegation and attended the banquet and dance at Coronado Saturday night. She says it was pronounced by well-posted Elks the best State convention that has been held in a long time. Those who went Thursday and Friday enjoyed the auto tours and steamboat rides around the bay with which delegates were entertained and say that there was something doing all the time.

FREAKISH PACOIMA FIRE

Dr. P. O. Lucas says he has suffered the loss of some big timber on his 120-acre place in Pacoima Canyon through the fire, but it will clear ground for the orchard he plans to plant. The last rain made a crust of the ashes, he says, which prevented the moisture from seeping into the ground as it should, but doubtless when the soil can be ploughed that effect will disappear and the ashes will be excellent fertilizer for the fruit trees. The young orchard already planted was burned. There is a burned spot in the floor of the cabin he was building during the summer, but its stone walls are uninjured. The greasewood covering of the wild land was burned and that is an advantage. The fire did some very freakish things. For instance, the doctor had captured and hived some swarms of wild bees. Alongside the hives he had placed some wooden boxes into which to transfer the honey or swarms when necessary and these empty wooden boxes are intact while all the bees and hives were burned. The doctor is hoping that work will very soon be resumed on the big dam which had been started in the canyon about six miles from its mouth, also that a crew of men will get busy constructing check dams to temporarily restrain the water.

COME ON SAD ERRAND

The presence of many out-of-town people at the funeral of the late Lieutenant Henry Webb, on Sunday, attested strongly to the great esteem in which he was held in many circles. Among those who came to pay their last respects beside the brother, Lyle G. Webb, of Seattle, Washington, were Mrs. C. C. Butterfield and son Frank Butterfield, an aunt and cousin from Ventura, Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Butterfield of Perris, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Butterfield of San Pedro, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Henry, Mrs. Theodore Strand, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bidamon, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Smith and Dr. Louise T. Crow, all of Los Angeles, Miss Ethel Palmer of San Diego, Lieutenant Batton who was acting with Lieutenant Webb on the fire patrol at the time of the accident and who accompanied the body home, Lieut. and Mrs. Rust of San Diego, the Lieutenant representing the friends from Rockwell Field; also six fellow-officers from March Field who were sent to act as pall-bearers and an equal number of sorority sisters of the Los Angeles Alumni Association of Sigma Kappa of which Mrs. Webb is a member; also the local members of Pershing Command of the League of American Defenders.

LIBRARIAN CUSHING AT HOME

Charles Cushing, librarian at the branch in the city building on Brand and Los Feliz Road, has returned to his house at 1100 South Glendale avenue. For nearly a year it has been occupied by Mrs. Keeler and her son who have now joined Mr. Keeler who is teaching in Chandler, Ariz. Mr. Cushing's sister, Mrs. Eckstine, has gone back to her claim in the Antelope Valley and expects to stay until she can complete the improvements necessary to enable her to prove up on it and secure title.

TIME CHANGES OCTOBER 26TH

According to a ruling of Congress several months ago the daylight saving scheme will finally come to an end Sunday, October 26th, at 12 o'clock at midnight when all clocks will be set back one hour. With this change we will be back again to natural time, and there will not be a change from that order of things unless Congress sometime decides differently.

"AMERICANIZATION"

HOW PARENTS CAN HELP THE TEACHERS EXPLAINED AT INTERMEDIATE P.-T. A.

About sixty members of the Parent-Teacher Association gathered for the first meeting of the year at the Intermediate School Monday afternoon with Mrs. George Whitaker, the new president in the chair.

Superintendent Richardson D. White explained to the mothers the new system of elective studies and encouraged them to ask questions concerning it which he answered.

Miss Clara Midcalf then made a most interesting but quite informal talk on the Americanization work which has been taken up by the schools in an effort to help in the solution of the great problem now before the United States. She referred to the fact that a large proportion of our population is of foreign origin and we have called our country the melting pot of nations. But during the war we found, said she, that the pot has not always melted. These peoples from across the water, even though naturalized citizens here, in many instances responded to the call of the lands from whence they came. Also, some of our own native-born were slackers. America now realizes that a great and sustained effort must be made to Americanize all its citizens and this effort must begin with the education of the children. They must be taught to respect law, to respect the officers of the law, and to cherish patriotic ideals. To make the effort effective, she pointed out, the parents must cooperate with the teachers. They must guard against manifesting any disregard for law or the expression of any sentiments which might be construed by their children as unpatriotic. In other words, the parents must be helpers in this Americanization work and not stumbling blocks.

Our constitution guarantees "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" and children must be made to realize, she said, that every soul under the stars and stripes is entitled to these things physically, intellectually and spiritually and life must be guarded and protected.

The chief business of America just now is to make good citizens, she affirmed. The Teachers' Club has formed an Americanization Committee whose duty it will be to inform the public and stimulate interest and co-operation in this work.

ON BUSINESS TRIP

Attorney W. E. Evans left for Seattle last Friday on a business trip. He is expected home the last of this week or the first of next. Mrs. Evans has had letters from her aunt, Mrs. Jackson, who is now in Kentucky telling of rains there which have made the country very beautiful, and of the pleasant time she is having. She will probably reach Glendale about the first of November. The last news Mrs. Evans had from Mr. and Mrs. Mattison B. Jones they were leaving Washington for New York. If their plans are carried out they will get home early in November, but Mrs. Evans' mother will probably precede them and get here first.

E. D. CLUB

Members of the E. D. Club will enjoy a dinner at the Gates Hotel in Los Angeles Saturday night and will then motor to Venice to spend the balance of the evening in dancing. The list of pleasure seekers will include: Messrs. and Mesdames V. M. Hollister, Warren Roberts, T. D. McClintock, W. A. Tanner, E. R. Naudain, F. J. Kuntzner, H. H. Martin, A. D. Cross and R. M. Brown.

COURTESY CHAIRMEN ENTERTAINED

Friday afternoon, October 9th, Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke entertained the courtesy chairmen of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations at her home at 325 West Acacia street when plans were discussed for the forthcoming reception to teachers. Refreshments were served by the hostess and a pleasant social afternoon was enjoyed in connection with the informal business session.

Mrs. C. H. DuBois is coming up from Long Beach to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. A. M. Beamon, for several days this week.

PLAN RACING AS PUBLIC BENEFIT

(By United Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 14.—Canada is considering a plan to make horse racing, which is conducted on a high plane there, work to the benefit of the general public.

The plan advanced is to limit the returns of promoters to a fair percentage of profit on their investment and devote the remainder of the receipts of the meetings to a good roads fund.

Among the owners favoring the plan is Commander J. K. L. Ross, owner of Sir Barton and Billy Kelly and one of the most prominent figures in Canadian and United States racing circles.

Discussing the project here recently, Commander Ross not only expressed his approval of it but went farther by recommending a plan to make the public share even greater benefits rom the sport. He wants a part of the surplus devoted toward the breeding of better horses.

"The government could use part of the money for the provision of stallions so the farmers could receive direct benefit by the opportunity to breed finer animals. The need of the farmer for better horses was never greater," he said. The primary object of racing should be to encourage better breeding. I have been trying to encourage it by inviting farmers to bring mares to my farm at Varennes. While the offer has been accepted on only a small scale, the venture has been very successful. With a properly worked out scheme under which the government stallions could tour the farming district of Canada, the farmer would derive untold benefits."

WANTS TO RIDE FREE IN BOSTON

(By United Press)

BOSTON, Oct. 14. — Ralph S. Bauer, for many years an advocate of public ownership of street railway systems and free rides for the public, has suggested to the special state commission on street railways that the Boston Elevated Railway Company's system should be run on this plan.

In advocating purchase by the public of Boston's street railway system, Bauer asserted that the street car rider is a "money asset to the community in which he rides." He claimed that the street cars are used by those who give something of permanent value to the city, and that instead of paying for the privilege of using the street railway system, they should be given the opportunity of doing so without paying any fare.

Bauer says that high street car fares are discouraging business expansion, and pointed out that the old custom of charging tolls on the country's highways had the same effect while that system was in operation.

SALVATION ARMY ON GOOD WILL MISSION

(By United Press)

BERLIN. (By Mail).—The Salvation Army—that institution which many an American doughboy will remember kindly through the years—has started a campaign based on Central Europe's looking toward creation with more of the spirit of "peace on earth, good will to men."

Headquarters of the organization, maintained here during the war, but unable to operate extensively because of its allied connections, has reopened fully and has begun the task of establishing branches in Prague, Vienna, Budapest, and throughout the Balkans.

Col. Treite, in charge of the local headquarters, declared it will be the aim of the Central European campaign to offer solace to these troubled nations through calming their spirits and their lives. The army will work to wipe out hatreds engendered during the war, and to revive friendly intercourse, he said.

CHRISTIAN PASTOR QUITS

Rev. L. G. Parker, pastor of the Monrovia Christian Church and a nephew of Samuel Parker of Glendale, resigned his pastorate at a recent meeting of the Church Board. The Monrovia News says, concerning Rev. Parker's resignation:

Rev. Mr. Parker's resignation came as a surprise to the majority of the elders, though some of his congregation were aware that he was not planning to remain here. The resignation has not as yet been accepted, but will be acted upon next Sunday by the congregation.

"There is no difference of opinion between the board and myself," said Mr. Parker today. "In fact, I have had only the pleasantest relations with Monrovia people. I have not as yet decided where I will go; I have two calls under consideration, one of which is to a large community church in the middle west."

That Monrovia is decidedly "overchurched" is the opinion of the resigning Christian minister, and this condition, which he believes is to be found in most communities of Southern California, has influenced him in his decision to quit the local pulpit.

"I have never been satisfied with the condition here," said Mr. Parker today, "and I believe religious work will never prosper as it should here while there are so many churches and creeds. Instead of thirteen denominations we should have not more than two, each with its pastor, assistant pastor, religious educational director and young people's worker.

"We younger men of the ministry with an organization that would reach every class of its pastorate, and each have been hoping for great things to follow the war; we hoped for a wonderful unification movement that would eliminate creeds and 'isms' and bring us closer together. Instead, we are again following denominational programs and getting nowhere. The whole great inter-church movement here and in foreign lands stands to fail unless by some means or other we manage to bring our home churches into greater harmony.

"People come to Southern California from every clime and they bring every variety of religious belief with them. As a result we have more kinds of religion than any section of the country I know of. Monrovia has thirteen listed churches, and probably representatives of as many more creeds. Until these more or less warring factions can come together and unite their efforts the sum total of religious effort is bound to be less than it should be."

Rev. Mr. Parker recently returned to his pulpit here after a summer spent in the middle west. He had been pastor of Monrovia Christian Church for nearly three years, coming here from Santa Monica. During his stay in Monrovia he has served the community as well as his congregation. He was the originator of this city's first successful municipal Christmas tree celebration, did excellent work in helping to secure the present Mexican missionary, C. C. Cordova, and to put this important work on a solid foundation, and in every civic and patriotic enterprise has proved capable, enthusiastic and a dependable aid. His resignation from the local pulpit will be felt by the whole city.

MORE ABOUT INFLUENZA

Persistent rumors relative to a recurrence of the flu epidemic make it obligatory on the part of the medical profession to meet the inquiries of an over-anxious public in as sane a manner as is consistent with facts. A direct answer to the question, "Do you think we will have a repetition of last winter's epidemic," would truthfully be "We do not know." In the light of past history we do not expect that, but it would be unreasonable to suppose that we could escape an increasing prevalence of that disease from now until spring.

So many things have been said about influenza which are either disproven or entirely unsupported by science or experience that it may be well for all of us to be impressed with one or two points which have been proven beyond a doubt and which are of vastly greater importance as regards mortality just now than the name and nationality of the bacteria concerned, although this may prove highly important when finally determined.

Keep the following points in mind:

1. Influenza itself is not usually fatal.
2. Pneumonia is the complication responsible for most fatalities.
3. Complications can nearly always be avoided by rest in bed, warmth, good ventilation and good nursing at the onset of illness. This plan should be followed with an ordinary cold if there is chilliness and fever. Many colds are due to the same infection in a less virulent form.

These simple measures are within the reach of all without money and without price. The important thing is to institute them early. Any other treatment chosen may work in harmony with these suggestions.

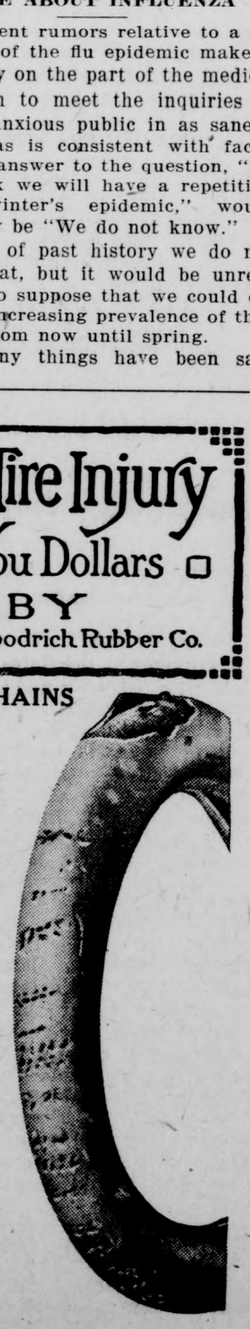
TIRES INJURED BY CHAINS



Motorists everywhere are realizing the injury to tires resulting from the misuse of chains. It is a well-known fact that chains do damage the tire no matter how carefully applied, but the amount of damage can be reduced to a very slight degree by the proper use of chains.

In the accompanying illustration, the damage done by improperly applied chains is accurately portrayed. The tread is cut through to the fabric and, in fact, loosened up and badly torn in places. In this case the chain was fastened to the spokes and held tightly in one place, which is evidenced by the cuts at regular intervals. This does not indicate a weakness of the tire, as all tires act in the same manner under similar treatment.

When you find it necessary to use chains, adjust them carefully. If too loose, they will cut and loosen the tread. If too tight, they will cut and bruise where lapped over the casing. The least injury results from chains that are loosely applied and have play enough to work themselves around the tire, distributing the strain to all points alike. At the first possible moment, where safety is not imperiled, remove the chains from the wheels.

The safest way is to avoid chains altogether and use the non-skid or safety tread style of tire.
